Characteristic of the product

This product is made from organic Jerusalem Artichoke (Helianthus tuberosus) grown in Shimane prefecture, Japan, which has been attracting attention for many years. It can be eaten with a meal (soups, salads) or without anything when you are hungry. The product is caffeine free and can be enjoyed by the whole family from children to the elderly. Topinambur, also known in Japan as "natural insulin", is grown and processed at our organically-approved plant.
